Annual Dinner

Thursday 18 November 2010

Grosvenor House, Park Lane, London

The CIA Annual Dinner is an occasion for celebration, networking and inspiring speeches.

© Liz Scarff

The principal speaker will be Sir Ranulph Fiennes – adventurer, explorer and holder of several endurance records. He has undertaken numerous expeditions and was the first person to visit both the North and South Poles. In May 2009, at the age of 65, he climbed to the summit of Mount Everest. According to the Guinness Book of World Records he is the world's greatest living adventurer.

The dinner provides an excellent opportunity to entertain valued existing clients, network with prospective customers and generate new business contacts. It is one of the largest industry events of its kind and regularly attracts some 1000 diners including senior representatives of chemical companies and leading figures from the City, industry, government, stakeholders and the news media.

An early-bird discount of £100 per table is available to all companies booking a table on or before Friday 24 September 2010.

Tickets are sold on a first-come, first-served basis – you are encouraged to book early to avoid disappointment.

CIA would like to thank the following sponsors of this years' Annual Dinner: A. T. Kearney, KPMG, Pentagon and The Haden Freeman Group.
